Superintendent Verl Hatch pauses for a moment

Administration We Lean On

Marquette's new superintendent, Verl L. Hatch was born just north of Cozad, Nebraska on July 5th. He lived in Eddyville but attended school in Lexington. After high school Mr. Hatch attended college at Hastings and at Wayne State and received his degree at the University of Nebraska. Mr. Hatch's teaching experience includes Christian Education teacher in Lincoln, at Lincoln Northeast he taught English and at Howells he taught English, art, marching band, and was responsible for twenty-one one-act plays. From Howells he went to Dorchester where he became principal. Mr. Hatch assumed the responsibilities of superintendent at Marquette last July. His family includes his wife Kathie and two daughters Sandy and Patsy. His hobbies and interests include gardening, he is a cartoonist and plays several musical instruments.

Six members make up the Marquette Board of Education of District 001-R. Ronald Andersen who serves as the present Board President has been on the school board two years. Secretary Barbara Dietrich is completing her fourth year on the Board. The member who has served the longest is Treasurer Kenneth Danhauer who has been a member for ten years. Leroy Jim Luff and David Vetter complete the Board of Education with two years each.

Board Members, top to bottom: Ron Andersen, Verl Hatch, Jim Luff, Barbara Dietrich, Lanny Menke, David Vetter and Kenneth Danhauer.

Kindergarten - Time for a New Beginning

Kindergarten students were busy this year visiting places, making things and, of course, studying. They visited the Marquette Volunteer Fire Department which they felt was very interesting, especially when they got to make the siren go. They made such things as Indian vests, a cardboard playhouse and magic pictures with the help of Mrs. Daisy Tuttle who was their volunteer helper. They enjoyed several holiday parties and they also studied very hard in their letterbooks. All in all, it was a time for many new experiences.

First and Second Graders Learn with Dick, Jane, Spot

First graders learned to read and how to add and subtract. They made math mobiles which helped decorate the room. Second graders presented a T.V. show and plays to the first graders. Following the plays they served treats they had prepared as part of their science lesson. Both grades received writing experience in letters and cards from pen pals in Laurel Springs, N.J. They also enjoyed class room parties as well as a field trip to Grand Island.

Third and fourth graders attended a musical in Aurora and also had a field trip to the Plainsman Museum in Aurora. In the spring the students presented two plays for their parents and friends. They also participated in the FHA Big Sister program. They spent time with their "big sister" making Christmas ornaments and also spirit posters.

Special projects included writing business letters to state capitals for information. This sparked an added interest in social studies. They visited the Aurora Pizza Hut and toured the Century Mfg and its production. Billie Hahn and Lance Jones were participants in the county spelling contest.

Various projects were accomplished this year from feeding white rats various combinations, to composing and presenting plays based on "Poor Richard's Almanac", to working with Bruce Holtan on everything from gathering moss to setting up an aquarium, to visiting the Aurora Pizza Hut to bake pizzas and Century Mfg. to view fiberglass. Laura Menke assisted in the sixth grade as a senior aide.

7th Grade - Movin' Up

Seventh graders began a new experience in school as they made the big change from one elementary class room to having different teachers in different rooms. They learned to be better proofreaders of compositions, enhanced their writing activities and have been working on a new idea of a junior high block. This block consists of two periods each day with Mrs. Carnes in the curricular areas of language arts and social studies. In order to meet their class expenses, they sold powdered laundry detergent.

8th Grade Advances

The eighth grade kept busy making money for their future years at M.H.S. by selling candy bars and working in the concessions at football, volleyball and basketball games.

However, it wasn't all work for they enjoyed a party with the seventh graders at the York Community Center. They participated in swimming, ping pong, pool and foos ball. Later they enjoyed a snack at Tom's Drive In.

Frosh - Time Stands Still

The Freshmen Class enjoyed their first year in high school and started working for the money they will need for their senior activities. They had a car wash, slave days and several concessions at volleyball, football and basketball games. Their big project for the year was planning the Freshmen-Senior Party which they had at Skate Island in Grand Island; later they enjoyed lunch.

Sophs - Time Moves Slow

The Sophomores have done various activities to raise money. They sold All-American kit items, cleaned out a horse barn and ran concessions at volleyball, football and basketball games. In April they had the thrill of choosing their class rings and while time may be moving slowly now the next two years will pass quite rapidly and soon be gone.

Time Runs Short

Time is running out and Juniors realized their senior year was fast approaching. This plus sponsoring the Jr-Sr. Banquet meant they had to work hard to raise money. They sold items from All-American kits, sold jars of cheese, pulled chickens from the chicken house and also had concessions at home games. The Jr.-Sr. Banquet which was held at Dreisbach's was a night to remember.

FHA Is Active

Before Christmas all FHA girls were involved in a big sister program where each adopted a 3rd or 4th grader and enjoyed several activities. A Valentine party was held at the Litzenberg Long Term care unit for FHA 'special grandparents'. National FHA Week Febr 10-16 found each day with a special theme: Family, Teacher Appreciation, Sweetheart, Spirit and Big Sister. A concession stand and the salad supper were successful fund raisers.

Student Council Begins Active Participation

Student Council under the sponsorship of Superintendent Hatch, sponsored many events including a free Christmas breakfast to all students and faculty, a Valentine's Dance, a basketball appreciation breakfast for all players and coaches, and also provided the noon luncheons for the honor roll parties. Council members also attended a workshop which was held in David City. All these activities were financed with money from the Pop Shoppe machine that was added.

Cheerleaders 1979 - 80

This year the cheerleaders experimented with something new, A Blue and Gold Club. Students and their parents could belong for a dollar and ride the bus to games.

Profits from concessions will be used to pay for summer clinics. They also sponsored a Parents Night during football and a Mom's Night at a basketball game. An Appreciation Breakfast was given by the cheerleaders and student council for the boys and girls basketball team and coaches.

After losing several key positions due to graduation, coaches began rebuilding the team. Although the scores did not look good, the team gained experience and confidence to carry forward to next year. Jim VanBibber was named All-conference defensive guard. Teammates voted Bill Griffith best offensive and Jim VanBibber best defensive players.

Despite a slow season, the volleyball girls put forth a great deal of effort and managed to finish 2-7 in the conference. This standing was about the same as in past years.

Michelle Ellenwood was picked for second team CRC All-Conference. The varsity final record was four wins, nine losses. The reserves (J.V.) ended with a good showing of six wins, four losses while the freshmen finished with an even two wins and two losses.

Allen Andersen, junior, gave the welcome followed by master of ceremonies Brian Menke, junior, who introduced the skits. It was a clean sweep by the sophomore class taking first place in both the skit and wall contests. Spirit Week winners were announced by Mrs. Bobbie Abele and Mr. Doug Gilson. An enthusiastic pep talk was given by football coach, Mr. Steve Jacobsen.

At halftime of the football game with Rising City the royalty was escorted onto the football field in Corvettes. A dance was held in the gym following the game.

Staff Keeps Busy With Annual and Newspaper

Not only was the Annual Staff busy completing the annual but this year initiated a monthly newspaper. Called the "Cubs Den" it was given to all high school students and to each elementary room. Special homecoming programs were prepared again this year. Julie Kauffman and Laura Menke were selected to the Quill & Scroll which is a journalism society. They became charter members as this was the first year for the society at MHS. Every Second And Every Inch Counts-Boys Track

Ten boys participated in the boys track events this year and of the ten, nine lettered to return another year. The five freshmen turned in a good performance and established a new 400 relay record of 52.8. Junior Larry Donlin received the most valuable distinction, participating in triple jump, 800 through 1600 meter runs, long jump and was high-point man. Junior Al Andersen threw both the shot put (38'10") and the discus (121'8"). Al missed setting a new school record with the discus by only thriteen inches. Because of his discus ability, Al represented MHS at the State Boys Track Meet held at Omaha Burke on May 23 and 24.

Junior Larry Donlin gives his best effort and places fifth in the 800 meter run at the Hampton Invitational Track Meet.

Front: student manager Lynn Menke, Chris Blum, Tracy Skidmore, Robin Bamesberger, Khristi VanBibber, Sandy Hatch, Marlena Nelson, Coach Doug Gilson, Back: Cindy Larson, Michele Donlin, Krista Sailors, Rhonda Nutzman.

Senior Rhonda Nutzman running the 3200 meter relay.

Records Were Made to be Broken-Girls Track

Ten girls turned out for the track team this year, a big improvement over past years. Of the ten girls, all ten lettered. Coach Gilson awarded recognition of 'most improved' member to Cindy Larson. School records broken this year included the 2-mile relay team with a record of 12.02 (team consisted of Rhonda Nutzman, Michele Donlin, Robin Bamesberger, Khristi VanBibber); low hurdles, record set of 19 seconds by Rhonda Nutzman; the shot put, record set of 32 feet 10 inches by Krista Sailors and the discus distance of 109.9 feet by Krista. The last record took sophomore Krista to the State Track Meet held at North Platte Senior High on May 16th and 17th.

Athletic Banquet Time

The MHS gym became a festive sight the evening of April 28 when red and silver metallic streamers transformed the gym for the Athletic Banquet. "Time in a Bottle" was chosen as the theme and nearly 200 persons listened to guest speaker Mr. Bob Devaney, Athletic Director of the Unviersity of Nebraska. His talk was sparked with bits of humor as he also brought forth his message.

The meal which was catered by Jamesons was served by the junior high students. Athletes and letterpersons were announced by the respective coaches. WOW Disco on Wheels and Complete Music from Omaha provided music for the dance which followed the program.

Michelle Ellenwood: "Don't cut that streamer too short, Mr. Abele."

Helping hands cut sports figures: Bill Olson and Tracy Hermansen give help.

Mrs. Bobbie Abele put in many hours - here she adds glitter to the name cards.

Senior Barb Skidmore's giggles don't help junior Michelle Ellenwood's determined efforts to construct an hour glass to hang from the canopy.

Barry Dietrich: "Now look, you guys, I may only be a junior but it appears to me we may be headed for a problem. I'm NOT going to be a revolving centerpiece and you better figure out a way to get me out of here." Jim Meyer and Dave Friedrichsen don't appear to be too concerned as they continue to hand Barry more streamers in order to construct the canopy of color.

After senior Ron Hutsell hung the streamer wires for the last time, he turned his efforts to the problem of seeing that the motors all worked for the silver and red shimmering entrance columns.

Mrs. Kathie Hatch, Superintendent Verl Hatch, Mrs. Sherri Jacobsen practice Emily Post but Mr. Steve Jacobsen is undecided whether to do likewise or just enjoy the food naturally as guest speaker Mr. Bob Devaney apparently does. Mr. Noel Jacobsen, Master of Ceremonies, is unaware of coach Jacobsen's eating dilemma.

Row Five: Linda Johnston, Brian Menke, Jim Danhauer, Troy Gustafson, Bill Griffith, Michele Donlin.

M-Club 80

While the M-Club did not have any special activities this year, they did conduct several money-making projects. These included the sale of special blue and gold Cub gym bags, Cub shirts and blue and gold caps. They also held a concession stand at a home basketball game. Members of the M-Club sold Athletic Banquet tickets and this year rather than borrowing candleholders for banquet use, they bought several of them and donated them to the school for use at school events.

1980 M-Club Officers: sophomore Krista Sailors, Sergeant at Arms; junior Barry Dietrich, Vice President; senior Julie Kauffman, Secretary; junior Al Andersen, President.

Awards Day, May 9, 1980

Mr. George Harris receives his award for 23 yrs service from Superintendent Verl Hatch. Mrs. Alvena Erb (17 yrs) and Mrs. Beulah Widga (23 yrs) wait to receive their awards.

Awards for perfect attendance, scholastic ranking, participation on the yearbook and newspaper and volleyball, football, boys and girls basketball and boys and girls track were just a few of the awards presented on May 9th. A first this year went to senior Julie Kauffman and Laura Menke as charter members in MHS's Quill & Scroll. Three service awards were also presented, one each to teachers George Harris, Beulah Widga and Alvena Erb. Highpoint was the announcement of National Honor Society members.

Michelle Ellenwood receives volleyball award from Mr. Carl Abele. Barb Skidmore, Rhonda Nutzman, Michelle Nelson, Laura Menke.

Al Andersen, Barry Dietrich, Tom Olson and Curt Andersen watch as Coach Steve Jacobsen presents Best Defensive Lineman award to senior Ron Hutsell.

Suspense builds as Mrs. Marcia Pierson taps senior Julie Kauffman into the National Honor Society.

Ron Hutsell signs the National Honor Society Scroll while Julie Kauffman, Michelle Ellenwood wait their turn.

Springtime meant retirement for new cub mascot who danced at ball games. Cindy Larson provided the action.

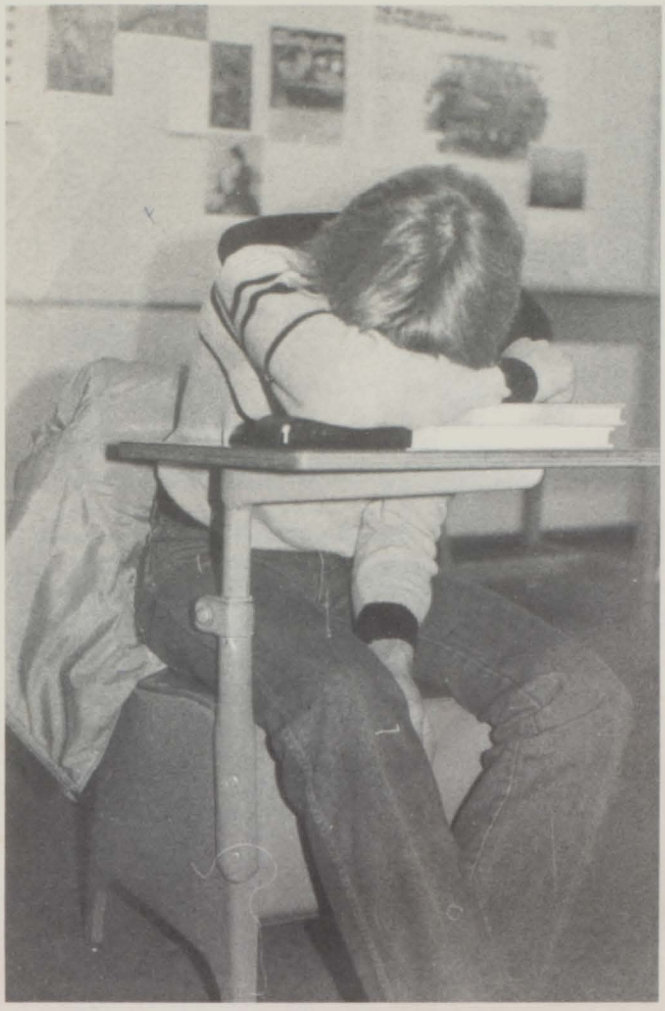
Springtime at MHS

Noon siesta: Al Andersen, Mike Luff, Rhonda Nutzman and Brian Menke take a break before going to class.

Barry Dietrich, Jim Danhauer prior to the Parking Lot Off Limits.

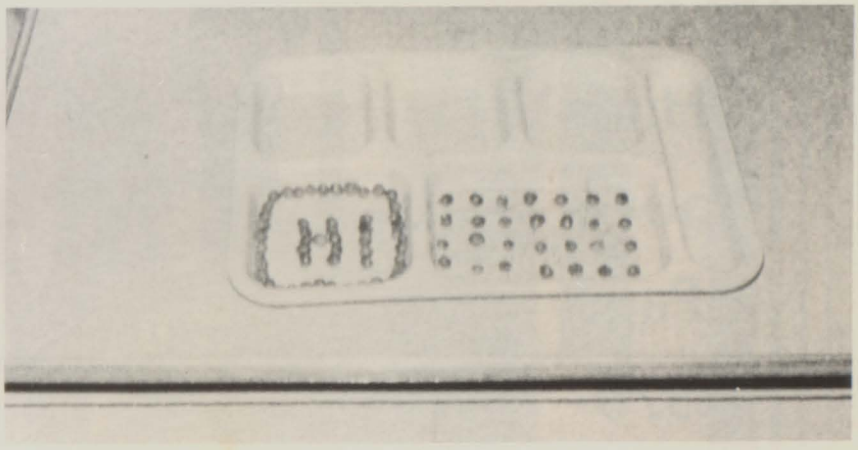
Soaking up some sunshine: Wanda Olson, Mary Johnston, Bill Olson, Tracy and Terri Hermansen enjoy the warm spring sunshine.

Senior Laura Menke completely ignores the antics of freshmen Billy Manka and Joe Andersen and continues to block the door.



The flash didn't even wake up junior Barry Dietrich. He was so sound asleep he wasn't aware the physics class pulled the shades, set the clock ahead and adjourned to the library. When the 3:00 bell rang, it found a confused Barry in an empty dark room with a clock reading 6:15! All in fun, Barry.

Springtime when thoughts turn to love. Senior Julie Kauffman is torn between two loves - Laura Menke and Linda Johnston.



Looks like MHS's Ghost Writer visited the kitchen.

When the English class decided to step out for some fresh spring air, they went out on a ledge literally - seniors Michelle Nelson, Mary Johnston, Troy Gustafson, Terri Hermansen, Ron Hutsell, and Barb Skidmore.

In spring the trees leaf out, the birds come back and MHS's "goonie loonies" pop out. The camera caught one: Michelle Nelson.

1979 Volleyball Team: Karri Chollar, Melissa Nelson, Wendy Blum, Lisa Ortegren, Glenda Nutzman and Rhonda Olson.

"We don't want to graduate with our legs in casts!" Srs. Julie Kauffman and Laura Menke take a few extra precautions.

Watch the speed limit, Girls. Tracy Skidmore and Robin Bamesberger hang on the best they can as classmate Khristy VanBibber races around the rink.

Freshmen - Senior Party

The annual Freshmen-Senior party, hosted by the Freshmen was held on April 1 at Grand Island Skate Island. All the Seniors and nearly all the Freshmen attended the event which was sponsored by Mrs. Deb Stranberg and Mr. Doug Gilson. Several students had not skated before but all participated and before the evening was over even the beginners were having fun, especially since the group had the exclusive use of the rink. The Freshmen treated the Seniors to a snack at McDonalds before returning back home.

Earl Reyner, Dan Beck play pinball. Jim Meyer, Doug Gilson are in background.

Under the guidance of a pro (Chuck Chollar) beginner Julie Kauffman has left the safety of the wall and doing ok.

Busy playing foosball are freshman Bill Olson and senior Chuck Chollar.

Ron Hutsell and Chuck Chollar play "The Astroids"

Marlena Nelson and Tracy Skidmore complain "My feet hurt" but Khristy VanBibber exclaims: "That's not where I hurt!!!"

Sponsor Mrs. Deb Stranberg, better look out. Freshman Billy Manka is closing in fast.

We know Sandy Hatch ate all her lunch but look out Chris Blum and Marlena Nelson, she's got a certain hungry look about her yet!

Srs. Troy Gustafson, Terri Hermansen and Rhonda Nutzman dig in but Ron Hutsell is more interested in matching his game card.

"WOW! Is this ever great!" Srs. Mary Johnston, Chuck Chollar and Jim Meyer enjoy their lunch.

Master of Ceremonies Jr. Brian Menke introduced guests.

Speaker Steve Jacobsen talks about the seniors of 80.

Jr. Sr. Banquet "Looks Like We Made It"

Dreisbach's in Grand Island provided the setting for the 1980 Jr. Sr. Banquet sponsored by the junior class. Dark blue and light blue were chosen as decorating colors for the family-style meal which featured fried chicken. The theme "Looks Like We Made It" was chosen for the seniors. A fun-filled program followed the dinner.

Even when Michelle Ellenwood eats out, she has to pour water!

All eyes on Larry Donlin - Mark Harris and Mike Luff.

Gordon and Mark Harris entertained with a duet singing "Please Come to Boston" and "Teach Your Children".

After visiting, everyone settles down to the business of eating.

Mrs. Deb Stranberg: "Randy, your manners!" but he's enjoying his bone!

Mr. Steve Jacobsen checks the menu for what food comes next.

Sr. Troy Gustafson reads the Last Will and Testament.

Laura Menke prophesies the class of 80 in the year 2000.

Senior Life

Students always look forward to their senior year and this year was no exception.

Seniors busied themselves with money-making projects - a chili feed following a basketball game, concession stands and cake raffles.

Of the 11 seniors, 6 of them started kindergarten at Marquette. The originals were: Terri Hermansen who recently returned from Pottsville, Texas, Ron Hutsell, Julie Kauffman, Laura Menke, Jim Meyer, and Michelle Nelson. Over the past 13 years they have shared good times and bad and memories will always remain.

Cake raffles tonight: Laura Menke, Michelle Nelson, Julie Kauffman sell tickets

Senior girls get stuck with Thanksgiving cleanup

Senior Chili Supper: What dirty dishes, AGAIN???

Officers: Barb Skidmore, secretary; Michelle Nelson, treasurer; Rhonda Nutzman, vice-president; Julie Kauffman, president

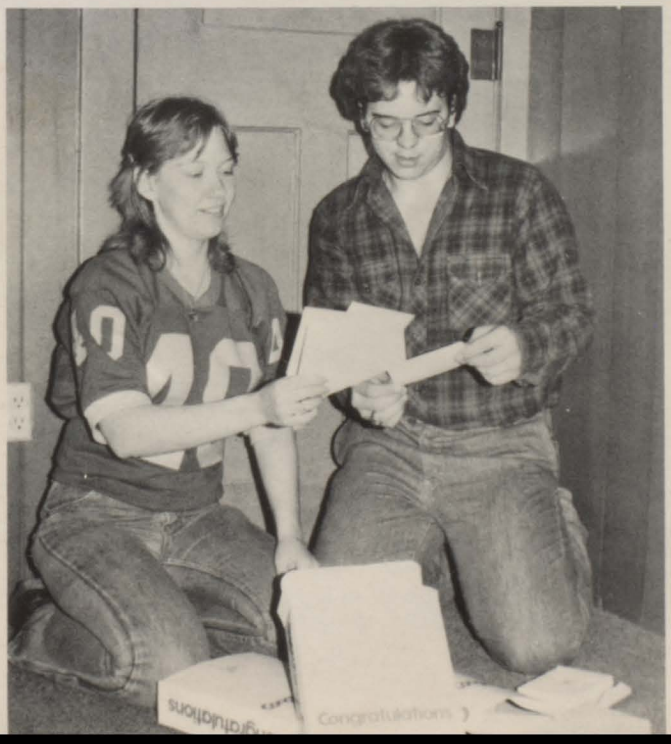
Senior luncheon and the girls practice the hulu before sitting down to a luau: Doug Gilson, Terri Hermansen, Julie Kauffman, Barb Skidmore, Michelle Nelson, Jim Meyer, Troy Gustafson, Ron Hutsell, Chuck Chollar, Rhonda Nutzman, Mary Johnston.

Julie Kauffman, Terri Hermansen: "Ohh-h, thank you, Mrs. Easter Bunny"

NO MORE PENCILS -- Julie Kauffman writes just one last note while Terri Hermansen labors at building a pencil tower.

NO MORE BOOKS - Laura Menke, Michelle Nelson cram for finals while Ron Hutsell takes the easy approach.

Curiosity Got the Best of 'Em - Mary Johnston and Ron Hutsell found the announcements and sneak a peek.



The caps fit; lets try the gowns on next. Michelle Nelson and Laura Menke search for the right box.

Seniors enjoy the thrill of the giant slide at the Lake.

Early morning view of the dock and Lake of the Ozarks.

Seniors Worked Hard for 'Sneak Trip' and . . .

Ozark hillbilly band: Laura Menke, Michelle Nelson, Doug Gilson, Barb Skidmore play the kazoo, the comb and paper, and drinking glass.

Barb, Laura, Michelle and Julie Kauffman show the effects of a long, busy weekend.

After a shopping spree Barb, Laura and Michelle relax before the Opry.

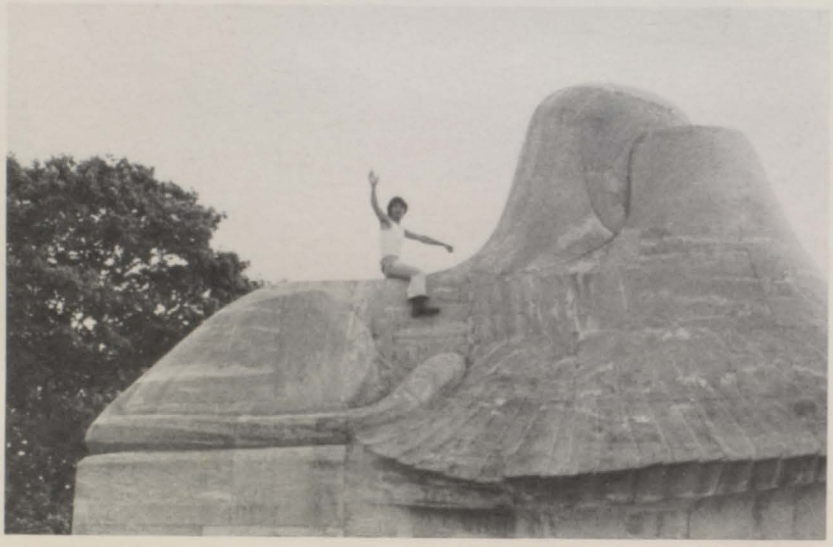
Super bunch of trip sponsor: Gloria & Clayton Nelson, Ruth Harris, Doug Gilson, George Harris were great to wait for shopping seniors. Jim Meyer also waits.

When it got boring, Rhonda Nutzman, Terri Hermansen, Mary Johnston and Mr. Doug Gilson livened it up.

Julie Kauffman can't figure out what Doug Gilson is doing and Michelle Nelson, Jim Meyer, Chuck Chollar and Laura Menke aren't going to help her.

. . . Then Really Enjoyed That Long-Awaited Trip

When Monday morning came, Jim Meyer saw that everything was in the van even if no one wanted to go home.



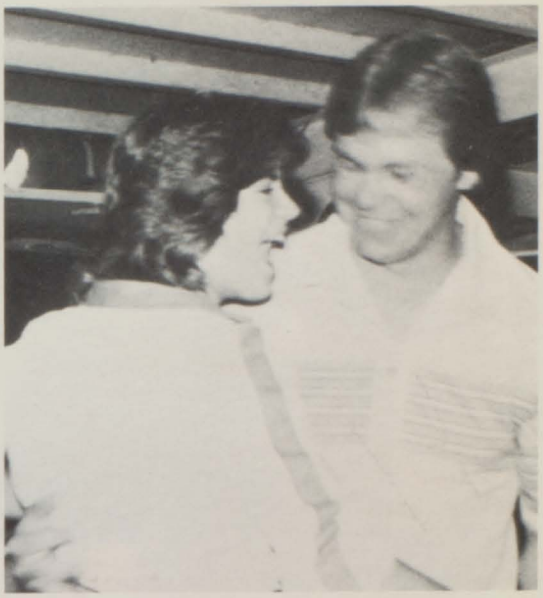
Troy Gustafson appears to be quite a small cowboy on top of this horse(?) It doesn't seem to be moving very fast, either. Try singing to it, Troy!

View of Ozark Lake dock area near the Temple Lodge.

Rhonda Nutzman looks like she spent all night roaming Worlds of Fun!

Jim Meyer: "Hey, now I can really get a good look at all the girls!"

"Howdy, pardner," says Michelle Nelson, "What d'ya say we mosey on down to the lake for a swim?"



Rhonda Nutzman and Doug Gilson don't care if they're in the beat or not, neither did the band!

After six years of waiting, the seniors spent a weekend together they thought would never come. They were having too much fun swimming, sun-bathing, and eating to think about the cake raffles, slave days that got them here. And no one thought that in just a month some of them would be in college. But as years go by, they will look back with good memories of the Class of 1980.

Julie Kauffman cuddles her new-found friend and seriously thought of sneaking it home in the van.

Sponsor Doug Gilson says, "If this boat goes down, all of you other people will just have to find you own life saver. This one is all MINE!"

Seniors get a birds-eye view of Kansas City skyline and famed Union Station.

The Final Sands of Time

FAREWELL, M.H.S.

We, the Senior Class of Marquettte High,
Must tell our friends and teachers goodbye.
Through all the good times through the years.
We now leave the school with smiles and tears.
We'll cherish our friendships always in our heart,
Our friends mean so much but now we must part.
We have been through many good times
together,
And I'm sure these memories will stay forever.
Though it hurts so much to leave one another,
We, as a class, have been like sister and brother.
Graduation for us is a whole new beginning,
And twelve important years are now at an ending.
And now that our final day is here
at last,
We must put all our memories in the past.
The road to our future now leads the way,
And we all have goals to reach someday.
Now we each go out and reach for our dreams,
We hope the world has as much to offer
as it seems.
And as each of us goes our separate way,
We must do our best till we meet again some day.

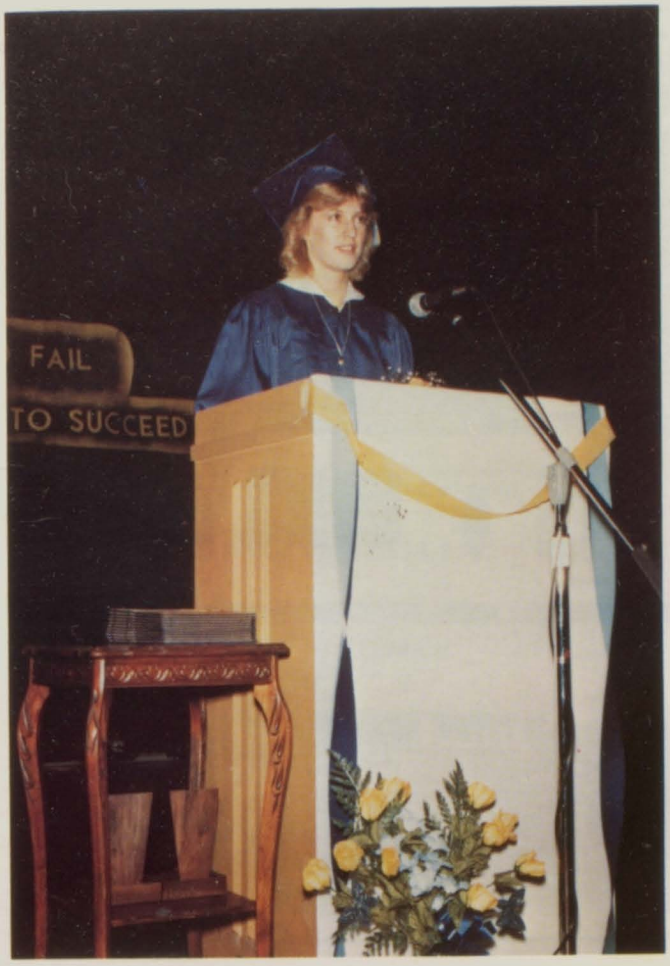
Rhonda Nutzman, Class of 1980

Last minute conversation: Laura Menke, Julie Kauffman, Barb Skidmore, Michelle Nelson.

Time for one last laugh: Ron Hutsell, Troy Gustafson, Chuck Chollar and Jim Meyer.

A possible new tradition is born. A candlelight service by the underclassmen.

Singing "I'll Always Remember": the entire class together for the last time as seniors.



Valedictorian Barb Skidmore spoke with humor to cover tears.

Salutatorian Michelle Nelson shared her thoughts on happiness.
